

I am writing to express my opposition to any move by FCC or any other organization of trying to muzzle the Christian media. It is not only unfortunate but also sad that such a idea would be brought forth. Such a move goes against the very tenets of the First Amendment that protects free speech. It is about time that we stopped this!